WHO IS JIMMYJANE?

JimmyJane is a design-centric brand founded on the belief that pleasure is power, designing high-tech products that inspire adventurous play and empower your overall well-being. Since launching in 2004, JimmyJane has redefined the context and perception of intimate well-being. Combining sophisticated product development in San Francisco with proprietary technology, our collections resound with luxe-excitement without compromising style.

JimmyJane believes that sexuality is as intricate and individual as a fingerprint. Rather than dictate what is sexy, we imbue each product with possibility, leaving room for exploration and interpretation. With our diverse collections– ranging from decadent massage candles and natural massage lotions to our award-winning vibrating massagers and iconic 24k gold vibrator – we engage each person's unique desires.

WHERE DESIGN MEETS INNOVATION

Every JimmyJane product is built from the ground up.

We're not re-packagers; every new JimmyJane product begins with a sketch and rendering. With JimmyJane's network of trusted and established manufacturing partners, we're able to strategically source and develop innovative products.

OUR EXECUTIVE TEAM

MATTHEW MATSUDAIRA
Chief Executive Officer

Matthew is a serial entrepreneur with previous senior leadership positions at Amazon, Chewy, Nordstrom, and numerous startups. He worked on the Chewy acquisition to PetSmart in 2017 and was a founding member of various lucrative Amazon launches, including Prime Now and Amazon Fire Phone. He was awarded as Greekwire's Entrepreneur of the Year, Techcocktail's Hottest Startup, and SIGN Magazine's Chief Executive of the Year - being one of the largest worldwide industry publications.

What sets the Jimmyjane Form 2 apart from other clitoral vibrators are the two vibrating motors, one in each ear. Whereas other vibrators have one motor where the vibration is diffused into two ears, the Jimmyjane has double the power. Smooth and sleek with seamless buttons, waterproof, and rechargeable, the Jimmyjane Form 2 is definitely a worthy investment considering the power you get.

Swell DO IT BETTER Warming Vibrators Are the Next Big Thing by Gigi Engle | 04/07/2021

CRUSHING ON:

WARMING VIBRATORS

Warming vibrators can help bring you into your body, relax, and enjoy more embodied pleasure.

The way they work is that they have a warming function inside them, activated by an independent button. They heat up on the inside to exactly body temperature and stay warm while the heating function is activated. They charge the same way the rest of the vibe does, using a USB port. The whole vibrator heats as one unit. Just think of it as a normal vibe with one extra button used for heating. Usually when the heater is on, the button turns red. That way, you know it's working.

Allow me to explain my love for these self-warming toys and why everyone needs one ASAP. Firstly, it helps with pain during sex.

6. Rabbit vibrators

Dual stimulation toys, usually referred to as "rabbits," are toys that combine internal stimulation of the G-spot area with external stimulation of the clitoris. They have a shaft to insert and a small curved attachment at the base to stimulate the external clitoral glands. Sometimes the attachment has two little "ears," hence the "rabbit" nickname.

My go-to favorite of the moment is the Jimmy Jane Glo, a self-heating rabbit that offers up mind blowing orgasms and relaxes the entire pelvic floor. Muscle relaxation AND orgasms, yes f*cking please.

WHAT CUSTOMERS ARE SAYING

HITS THE SPOT!

"This vibe hits the spot literally lol. I ordered this to spice up the bedroom and have fun when hubby is away on business. Couples play is fantastic, it worked wonders for foreplay and during sex I held it to my clit and came 4 times in a row."

FOCUS ON YOU

"This sonic vibe is just perfect, sometimes you just need to step back and FOCUS on yourself and this vibrator makes that moment magical. Wish they sold extra/different heads to play with."

MULTI-FUNCTIONAL VIBRATOR!

"Got this vibrator a few months ago for the power levels advertised, and so far it has not disappointed! SUPER POWERFUL! I really like that it also comes with the different head attachments."
